

Elizabeth A. Campbell

Of Counsel

Elizabeth practices with the firm's Litigation Group and focuses her work on medical malpractice defense and the representation of physicians and other health care professionals on licensure matters before regulatory bodies.

Prior to joining Preti Flaherty, she practiced law in New York City, where she focused on insurance defense litigation in areas of negligence and tort litigation, including medical malpractice, premises liability and lead paint cases. From 1989 to 1991, she served as an attorney for the Federal Election Commission, Office of the General Counsel, in Washington, D.C. While in Washington, she also studied electoral politics at the George Washington University Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

She lives in Scarborough, Maine with her husband, Matthew Tice and their two children.

Tel 207.791.3000
ecampbell@preti.com

Practice Areas

- Litigation

Education

- Syracuse University College of Law (J.D., 1989)
- George Washington University (1986)
- Bethany College (B.A., 1985)

Admissions

- Maine
- Massachusetts
- New York
- U.S. District Court, District of Maine
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
- U.S. Court of Appeals, First Circuit

Civic Involvement

- St. Maximilian Kolbe Church, Scarborough - lector, parish volunteer