

Sigmund D. Schutz

Partner

With courtroom successes for Fortune 500 companies, regional businesses, insurers, and entrepreneurs, Sig is a trial lawyer with many contested hearings to his credit, including jury trials in state and federal court, multi-week complex arbitrations, and high-stakes administrative hearings. Sig has been counsel of record in many state and federal reported judicial decisions, including more than twenty appeals in the Maine Supreme Judicial Court.

Sig's environmental law practice includes toxic torts litigation, state and federal environmental enforcement defense, environmental damage and mold claims, defense of natural resource damage claims, and zoning and land use litigation and appeals.

Active in securities disputes, Sig handles claims involving broker-dealers, securities fraud, and investment malpractice. He has participated as counsel in numerous Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) arbitrations and in securities litigation in state and in federal court.

In his media law practice, Sig represents the news media in First Amendment matters, defamation and privacy, state and federal freedom of information, newsgathering and cyber law. He has also served as counsel in copyright, Lanham Act and advertising matters.

Sig handles a range of complex state and federal litigation and appeals, including product liability claims, construction litigation, commercial litigation and arbitration, civil rights and constitutional litigation, professional liability, and unfair trade practices and administrative matters.
