

Gregory L. Silverman

Associate

Greg is an Associate in the firm's Litigation Group, practicing from the Concord office. His work focuses on commercial, employment, and probate law. He has tried cases before judges and juries, and argued before the New Hampshire Supreme Court. He also counsels individuals and entities on contract negotiations and other business matters. Greg regularly publishes articles and presents on legal issues, from mechanic's liens to evolving regulations about the use of drones.

Prior to joining Preti Flaherty, Greg served as a judicial intern at the New Hampshire Supreme Court. He was also active in politics and government, organizing Iowa counties for a presidential campaign, managing a New Hampshire State Senate race, and serving in the New Hampshire Senate as a Legislative Aide for the Deputy Majority Leader.
