

Holly E. Lusk

Of Counsel

Holly practices with the firm's Government Affairs, Health Law, and Litigation groups in the Augusta, Maine office. She advocates for clients before the Maine Legislature, the Executive Branch and other state agencies on a wide range of policy issues. She also represents healthcare professionals before their respective licensing boards.

During her recent tenure as the Senior Health Policy Advisor to Governor Paul R. LePage concentrating on health, welfare, insurance, professional licensing and financial regulatory matters, Holly built strong relationships with key decision makers at the State House. She also represented Governor LePage before the Maine Supreme Judicial Court in constitutional litigation. Prior to joining the Governor's staff, Holly practiced with Preti Flaherty's Litigation and Health Law groups out of the firm's Portland, Maine office, during which time she was recognized as a Super Lawyers Rising Star for three consecutive years.

Holly is an honors graduate of the University of Maine School of Law, where she received the Gignoux Award for Appellate Advocacy upon graduation, and the University of Pennsylvania, where she received a degree in International Relations and French Studies. She serves on the Orr's - Bailey Yacht Club Board of Directors and is Past Chair of the March of Dimes Maine State Chapter's Board of Directors.

Holly resides in Harpswell with her husband and two children.
