

Megan Eidman Arguelles

Associate

Megan is a member of Preti Flaherty's Business Law group, working from the firm's Portland office. Her practice focuses on representing clients in a wide range of transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions, financings, commercial contracts, and corporate governance. Megan advises companies through every stage of the corporate life cycle, from pre-incorporation planning and formation through growth and acquisition.

Prior to joining Preti Flaherty, Megan worked at international law firms in Silicon Valley and Washington, D.C., representing corporate clients in a broad array of transactional and regulatory matters.

A graduate of George Washington University Law School, Megan also earned a BA in political science from the University of Southern California. Prior to pursuing her law degree, she served as a legislative assistant in the U.S. House of Representatives and was a government affairs coordinator at Microsoft. While in law school, she held a judicial internship with the Hon. Heidi Pasichow of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.
