

Meryl E. Poulin

Associate

Meryl practices with Preti Flaherty's Litigation and Employment Law practice groups from the firm's Portland office. She represents an extensive range of clients, from individuals to large public and private companies. Her litigation experience spans several fields, including employment, business and commercial, professional liability, product liability, defamation, and personal injury. She has tried bench and jury trials in Maine State courts and examined witnesses in administrative hearings in Maine.

Meryl is a graduate of the University of Maine School of Law and Colby College with a degree in Psychology. While in law school, Meryl was a member of the Maine Law Review and the Maine Law Moot Court team, competing nationally two years in a row. She is a 2016 Charles A. Harvey Jr. Trial Immersion Fellow, and was a trial assistant and law clerk at several notable law firms in the Portland, Maine, area.

Meryl currently resides in Cape Elizabeth.
