

Paola A. Maymi

Associate

pmaymi@preti.com
207.791.3000

Paola is an Associate with Preti Flaherty's Corporate and M&A Practice Group in the firm's Portland, Maine, office. In her practice, she is dedicated to advising business clients on a multitude of general transactional matters, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, contract preparation and negotiation, as well as commercial finance and corporate governance.

Paola is a magna cum laude graduate of Emory University School of Law and Bowdoin College. In law school, she was Notes & Comments Editor for the Emory Law Journal, a clinic participant at Emory's International Humanitarian Law Clinic, and a judicial extern at the Supreme Court of Georgia. While at Bowdoin, she held internships at Project Citizenship in Boston and in the Maine Migrant Education Program in Augusta; was a teaching assistant on Maine politics in the Bowdoin Department of Government; and served as president of the Bowdoin Advocates for Human Rights. She has studied abroad in Granada, Spain, and Havana, Cuba. In 2019 and 2020, Paola was a Summer Associate at Preti Flaherty.

Paola lives in Portland, Maine.

Admissions

- Maine, 2021

Education

- Emory University School of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, 2021)
 - Emory Law Journal, Notes & Comments Editor
 - Order of the Coif
- Bowdoin College (B.A., 2018)
 - Government and Legal Studies
 - Latin American Studies

Languages

- Spanish

Services

- Corporate and M&A
- Real Estate and Finance

Civic and Charitable Activities

- Board of Directors, Pine Tree Legal Assistance

Honors & Recognition

- Turner Prize in Latin American Studies
- Pierce Memorial Prize in Law